9. To the west of the railway line at Furstenberg station (U-62), there is a large POL dump in the woods. POL is stacked into squares of 100 drums each. Approximately 4,000 drums are visible from the railway.

Maneuvers

- 10. Exercises involving tanks, engineers, and reconsissance troops were observed by a local informant in the woods between Magdeburg and Bitterfeld (E-14) during the first week of August 1945. The village of Mosigkau (E-06) was evacuated and used as a target for the artillery fire.
- 11. The ex-Wehrmacht training area at Ohrdruf (J-15) is now being used by the Soviet Army.
- 12. large-scale maneuvers in progress in Lausitz 50X1-HUM Forest in mid-August 1946.
- 13. Numerous heavy tank tracks have been observed in the vicinity. They appear to be larger than the tracks made by the T-34.
